- Because it is part of delivering a public service [Article 9(2)(g)]
For example: Holding data on any medical condition so that we can help you manage it

Storing your personal data

Most of the personal data that we collect, and use is added to your Educational Record. This record is kept while you attend Bebington High Sports College. If you leave Bebington High Sports College, then the record will be:

- If you move to another school, we will transfer a copy of your records to the new school
- We retain a full copy of your record until your 25th birthday. After this we will dispose of all the records securely.

Some personal data is kept for different lengths of time. For example;

- Detailed information about your daily attendance is kept for three years.
- Information about free school meals is kept for the current year and 6 years afterwards.

If you'd like to know how long we keep a specific piece of personal data, please contact the Data Protection Officer whose details can be found at the end of this Privacy Notice.

Sharing your personal data

At times we will share your personal data with other organisations and people. We will only do this when we are legally required to do so, when our policies allow us to do so or when you have given your consent.

Examples of people we share personal data with are:

- Family, associates and representatives of the person whose personal data we are processing who are authorised to receive the data
- Wirral Borough Council
- The Department for Education
- The National Pupil Database
- Examining bodies
- Healthcare, social and welfare organisations

- Careers service
- Academy trusts

Where we share your personal data with someone who is a supplier or service provider we have taken steps to ensure that they treat your personal data in a way that meets the requirements of the GDPR.

Your rights to your personal data

You have rights relating to the personal data that we collect and use. Depending on the legal basis we are using the information you have different rights. If we are using your personal data based on your consent, you can withdraw that consent and we will stop using that personal data.

Withdrawing your consent will need to be recorded in writing, please contact the Data Protection Officer.

The right to be informed:

If you ask us, we must tell you if we are collecting or using your personal data.

If we are collecting or using your personal data, you have:

The right of access to your personal data

You have the right to view the personal data that we hold about you, to receive a copy of the data and to be given more information about the data including any transfer to countries who do not fall under the requirements of the GDPR.

Some information we hold cannot be accessed in this way. If you ask for information that is not available, there may be other ways of accessing it and we can help you.

To have access to your personal data we will need to collect details of what you want and in the first instance you can contact the Data Protection Officer whose details can be found at the end of this Privacy Notice.

Other rights

You also have rights to ask us to correct inaccurate personal data, to ask us to stop using it or to object to us using it. For some data you may have to write to ask us to erase it, to provide it in an electronic format that you can give to someone else. For some personal data if we are subjecting it to automated decision making then you have the right to object to this and request that a person is involved.

You will be given full details of these rights if you request access to your personal data or you can ask the Data Protection Officer.

Parents or Guardian's rights to access your personal data

For students in Year 7 we will usually ask your parents or guardian to confirm that you can access the personal data. We will also provide your personal data to your parents or guardian if they request it. Once you reach Year 8 we will usually consider that you can make decisions about your personal data. This means that in most cases you can request access to your personal data and we will not ask your parents for their permission. It also means that we will not normally release your personal data to your parents or guardian without your permission.

There may be occasions where we need to provide personal data to your parents or guardian without your consent. These are likely to occur if there is a concern about your safety. We may also release personal data if your behaviour creates concern for the safety or progress of others.

We will still need to ask permission from your parents or guardian for you to take part in some school and extra-curricular activities. The requirement for this permission overrides the protection of your personal data.

We are required to provide your parents or guardian with an annual report of your progress at school. We will offer the opportunity for your parents or guardian to come into school to discuss this report with your teachers and other members of staff.

Who to contact

The school has the responsibility to ensure that your personal data is protected.

Schools are required to have someone called a Data Protection Officer or DPO. The DPO advises the school about issues to do with data protection. The school also has an internal school privacy officer or SPO, who is the first point of contact to help you if you have a problem.
