Teacher of Geography

Required from: September 2018

The Headteacher and Governors of this successful and popular 11-18 co-educational, all-ability school are seeking to appoint a dedicated professional to teach across a range of ages and abilities in our successful Geography / Humanities. This is a fantastic opportunity for an enthusiastic, well-qualified secondary Geography teacher to join the dynamic Humanities Department that received good feedback during the last Ofsted inspection. Under the focused leadership of the new Head Teacher, the Humanities department has been a flagship of good practice.

To be successful, you will need excellent subject knowledge, commitment to raising standards and determination to facilitate at least good progress for all our students. You are a good classroom practitioner ready to take on a new challenge in a thriving environment with excellent prospects for career progression. Prospective candidates with experience of teaching GCSE Geography.

We can offer the successful candidate the chance to work alongside excellent teachers in a supportive and energetic department where creativity and innovation are celebrated.

Further details are available from the Headteacher's PA, Mrs S Turner
